"I've had a meaningful career at St. Lawrence. I know this place, how the money is spent, and its impact. There's no nonsense here, and you can tell by the great outcomes."

- SAMANTHA GLAZIER, PROFESSOR AND CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

Professor Glazier with Casimir Misiewicz '17 who is now pursuing his Ph.D. in chemistry at Uppsala University in Sweden.

WILL YOU JOIN PROFESSOR SAMANTHA GLAZIER AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE TOO?

Professor Glazier is passionate about her work, her students, and St. Lawrence. That is why she's made the University a beneficiary in her estate plans. See Samantha's story at plannedgifts.stlawu.edu/samantha.

You can help ensure the University attracts the best and brightest students, retains exceptional faculty such as Professor Glazier, and positions our students to succeed in graduate studies and their careers.

Legacy gifts are critical to St. Lawrence today and in the future.

You can use your estate assets (will, trust, IRA, appreciated securities, life insurance, or real estate) to make an impactful gift that affirms your legacy.

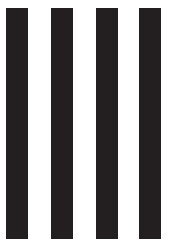

Laurentians can also verify their estate commitments in support of The Campaign for Every Laurentian and it can count for your next Reunion.

To join Professor Glazier and nearly 1,475 Laurentians who are recognized as members of the G. Atwood Manley Society, please contact Kurt Terrell, Director of Planned Gifts, 315 229 5505 or kterrell@stlawu.edu
