

No other collegiate institution does it better than St. Lawrence

“In my estimation, no other collegiate institution does it better than St. Lawrence. The strong academics, the community, the North Country location, and the alumni relationships fostered during student years are hallmarks of institutional excellence.

I owe much to those with whom I shared the St. Lawrence campus during my decade tenure as a young Dean. Including the University in my estate planning is my way of saying thank you.”

—Dr. Walter H. Baumhoff, St. Lawrence University Dean of Students (1961-1971)

In celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the G. Atwood Manley Society, St. Lawrence wishes to express gratitude to the nearly 1,475 Laurentians, like Walter, who have included St. Lawrence in their estate plans and are recognized as members of the Manley Society.

Membership, spanning more than a century, is at its highest level in the history of the University. Click here for a current list of our members.

As of December 1, 2020, Manley Society members have notified the University of planned gift intentions totaling $161 million. Of these, $60 million have been verified and recognized as part of The Campaign for Every Laurentian.

These gifts provide much-needed scholarship aid, endow our future, position us for learning in the 21st Century, and provide support for the highest priorities of the University.

Legacy gifts are critical to St. Lawrence today and in the future. Please consider joining Walter and the nearly 1,475 other Laurentians who are committed to the University’s mission. With appropriate verification, your commitment may be included in the success of the campaign.

Will you join Walter and make a difference?
