LAURENTIANS. LIBERAL ARTS. LEGACY.

"Sue and I feel good giving back to St. Lawrence because we know that we're helping future generations get the same valuable and versatile liberal arts education, just like we received. This completes the circle."

WILL YOU JOIN DON AND SUE BY CREATING YOUR OWN LAURENTIAN LEGACY?

Don '70 and Sue Lueth '72 Martin have fond memories of their days at St. Lawrence and credit much of their success to the foundation that the University provided for their professional careers.

Now, they have a message for Laurentians: Join us.

They want to help keep the St. Lawrence experience vibrant and they are encouraging others to help as well. They'll both celebrate their 50th reunions this June. Their gift honors this special milestone and their graduating classes of 1970 and 1972.

Don and Sue have a gift plan that uses their IRA's Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) today in support of current students and helps meet their Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). They are also leaving a bequest with their estate plan that will help future generations who select the Scarlet and Brown.
